

John Paul Surundu
jopasboss@yahoo.com

An exceptionally well-organized team player and networker who adeptly and cordially establishes professional rapport with clients, coworkers, and colleagues; excellent and captivating presentation skills, able to effectively communicate with people of diverse backgrounds; excellent problem-solving skills, quickly learns and adapts new skills as dictated by work and social environment, working with strict deadlines in keeping with schedule; detail-oriented individual who meets the expected high standards of quality; dependable and creative individual who mentors young people, facilitating their acquisition of life-long skills to enable them make better choices and decisions in their careers and life; affable, diplomatic, political networker and skillful community organizer who accommodates divergent views.

Lay leadership training in: diabetes self-management; chronic disease self-management; chronic pain self-management; and cancer thriving and surviving. Regular volunteer at the Delaware Medical Reserve Corps (First Responders in Disaster management). Youth coordinator of the UN Representative To Love Children. Regular volunteer at the SAFE Coalition fighting against Human Trafficking in Dover, Delaware.

Education: Degree Certificate, Delaware Tech Community College, Dover, Delaware. Major: Criminal Justice May 2018. Certification in Diabetes SMP, Delaware Tech Community College, Dover, Delaware -Chronic Diseases SMP; Chronic Diseases SMP and Cancer Thriving and Surviving 2017 to date. Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) certification from Sum-land Institute Park Ridge Illinois, (2007). Certificate in Soccer Coaching from Soccer Coach Elgin Community College, (2008). Certificate in Business Studies and Administration from Peponi International College in Nairobi, Kenya, (2005).